Have you found yourself concerned for a child and thought about how you could have gotten involved? Or more importantly, wondered why you didn't?

This program is for any group or organization within the community who wants to learn how to respond to situations involving a child.

You will:

- Identify when and how to get involved in situations involving a child.
- Increase your comfort level with stepping into those situations.
- Identify "roadblocks" to stepping in and find safe ways around them.
- Consider how culture impacts parenting
- Discover Protective Factors that strengthen families

This program is available at no cost to residents and community members of Sagadahoc County. For more information or to schedule a training for your group or organization, call Dawn at (207) 442-7963 ext. 230
